B&H WORLDWIDE NAMED BEST-IN-CLASS

The Global Institute of Logistics has named B&H Worldwide as the world's Best-in-Class Global Aerospace Logistics Company.

"It is our judgement that B&H Worldwide is the benchmark independent freight forwarder in the global aerospace logistics space. Our research coupled with peer group opinion left us in no doubt that B&H Worldwide is deserving of Best-in-Class accreditation.

"B&H Worldwide is operating and executing to logistics standards beyond what is considered normal for the industry. A combination of factors driven by the demands of the aerospace industry combined with three decades of hands-on experience in the vertical has propelled the company to the top of the class, to Best-in-Class.

"Having worked personally on the research into B&H, I can't help using a medical metaphor to describe their approach. An AOG situation is the equivalent of a medical emergency, and for the most part is best dealt with by a specialist, the top person in the field. That's how B&H are regarded by their customers, miles ahead of a general practitioner, skilled, timely and resolute in their approach, intuitively knowing what's best while at the same time keeping a cool head."

KIERAN RING, CEO, GLOBAL INSTITUTE OF LOGISTICS

"This accreditation is an exceptional honour. I am truly grateful to our employees around the world for their passion and ambition to exceed the standards of service in aerospace logistics and of course to all our customers who took part in the Institute's research.

"Being named the world's Best-in-Class Global Aerospace Logistics company endorses our uniqueness and confirms our belief in specialising solely in this sector. Our desire to be the best, rather than the biggest is borne out by this extraordinary independent award."

STUART ALLEN, CEO, B&H WORLDWIDE

ABOUT BEST-IN-CLASS

Best-in-Class accreditation from the Global Institute of Logistics is awarded to only one company in each vertical market. B&H Worldwide has further established its market-leading position by attaining this remarkable accomplishment.

WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS SAY

▲▲ After a thorough tender process, in May 2017 we awarded our engineering logistics business to B&H Worldwide as we found their passion and commitment to building a long term relationship with us to be the best in class.

B&H have a proven track record in reducing logistics costs for airlines, while improving logistics service levels. They achieve this through their core philosophy of overall customer engagement and strong belief in driving ongoing continuous improvement. ▶▶

EINAR MÁR GUDMUNDSSON, DIRECTOR MATERIALS & LOGISTICS, ICELANDAIR

▲▲ We've worked with B&H for over 20 years and have found their standard of freight management and other support services to be consistently higher than others we have tried in the past. We look forward to continuing our strong relationship with B&H. ▶▶

NIC LEWIS, CEO, PDQ AIRSPARES

▲▲ B&H have demonstrated to be truly customer focused, reducing logistics costs whilst improving service levels through a continuous improvement approach. This is all underpinned by their leading IT solution, OnTrack, which is both user friendly & flexible enabling B&H to provide an un-matched suite of reporting and analytics to meet the unique needs of the aviation industry.

The flexibility of the B&H team to adapt to the ever-changing nature of our business & their aviation expertise sets them apart from their competitors. ▶▶

A TOP 20 GLOBAL AIRLINE (SKYTRAX)

▲▲ After an exhaustive tender process incorporating inflight and engineering freight, we awarded our freight management to B&H Worldwide. B&H will act as our Lead Logistics provider (LLP) managing the lifecycle of our international purchase orders centrally via OnTrack.

B&H have a proven track record in reducing logistics cost and driving out complexity, while at the same time improving the overall logistics service levels. Their continuous improvement philosophy and unwavering customer engagement, as well as their understanding of the aviation industry, set them aside as the clear choice for us. ▶▶

We've trusted B&H for more than two decades because time and again they come up with excellent solutions to our problems, as well as providing continuous great customer service. After working with B&H for so many years, I would highly recommend them as a partner for the management of critical shipments.
